

The Alexandria Gazette

THURSDAY EVENING, NOVEMBER 9.

The National Intelligencer, commenting on the result of the recent elections, says:—"The unanimous ratification by the late elections of the policy of the President in respect to restoration cannot fail to have the happiest effect; unless some of the collaterals of the late canvass shall be mistaken by ultra partisans for the main popular point, which was to signify the public approval of the Administration. If, however, an imprudent use shall be made of these elections by politicians in power, their beneficent effect will be frustrated."

THE TRIAL OF JEFFERSON DAVIS.

The Washington correspondent of the Cincinnati Commercial, under date of November 6, writes:

"Chief Justice Chase has notified the President that, after a thorough and careful examination into the whole question, he cannot preside over the court for the trial of Jeff. Davis, in the city of Richmond. The reason he assigns is, that there is no regularly organized court in that city. Thus the Government is all at sea again in regard to his trial. The President maintains that he cannot be tried at any other place. The impression is that he will be released, with the understanding that he is to go to Europe, and not return, or, in other words, to be expatriated."

The editor of the Charlottesville Chronicle has received a present of a gold pen, and declares that it not only adds spirit to his editorials, but that as "it is the first gold he has seen for many a day, it has awakened an entirely new set of sensations;" and asks feelingly:—"Cannot somebody send us a horse—or a gallop of oysters."

METHODIST CHURCH IN VIRGINIA.—The Fredericksburg Herald, in alluding to the M. E. Church property in Virginia says: "As far as Fredericksburg is concerned we understand that the Rev. Dr. Green has been here for some weeks claiming the use of the Church for the party of the Baltimore Conference, which claim has been resisted by the trustees of the Church, who have called the Rev. Mr. Rogers, their former Pastor. The question of right has been before the military authority here, and before those in Richmond. We understand that General Terry, decided he would not interfere with the rights or preference of the congregation here. This, of course, will give Mr. Rogers the pulpit, whenever the building is in condition to use as a place for worship."

As the Rev. Mr. Rogers has accepted a call from the Methodist congregation of Leesburg, and delivered his first sermon from the pulpit of the M. E. Church, South, on Sunday last, (which pulpit he will stately occupy in the future,) our Fredericksburg friends will have to look further for a pastor. Mr. Rogers belongs to that party which for several years past, has been holding its annual sessions in Staunton, Va. The old Methodist Episcopal Church of this town, which was seriously damaged during the war, is undergoing repairs, and is under the pastoral charge of the Rev. Mr. Clarke, of the Baltimore Conference, who likewise preached his first sermon in the lecture room of that House, on Sunday last.—[Leesburg Mirror.]

LOUDOUN COUNTY, VA.

The November term of the county court convenes on Monday.

A negro girl, near Mount Gilead, bitten by a mad dog some few weeks ago, has been seized with hydrophobia.

The Leesburg Mirror says: Wm. B. Downey, Commonwealth's Attorney for Loudoun, was arrested in Leesburg, on Tuesday, by military authority. The matter has been referred to the commanding officer of this District for investigation.—Mr. D. remaining in the meantime in confinement.

The Leesburg Washingtonian says: The Silcott Springs farm was sold on the 28th of October, J. L. Rinker, Auctioneer, for $90.60 per acre. Russell and Cross, purchasers. At the same time by the same, Mr. John Blitzer sold 65 acres adjoining, for $70.30 per acre.

The Virginia Annual Conference M. E. Church, South, will hold its next session at Danville, on the 22d inst.

It has been ascertained that the mortality in the army hospitals throughout the country during the war amounted to but nine per cent. of the admissions. The proportion in the English army in the Crimean campaign was fifty per cent.

The Captain General of Cuba has tendered to the British Consul General troops and war vessels to assist the authorities in putting down the insurrection in Jamaica.

The Fenians had a great meeting in Baltimore last evening. There was much enthusiasm.

Dr. Elson Osburn, a dealer in counterfeit postal currency, has been arrested at Lancaster county, Pa.

THE CASE OF HENRY WIRZ.

Yesterday Mr. Schade visited Wirz, and found Father Boyle in attendance, spiritually advising the condemned man. Capt. Wirz stated to Mr. Schade that owing to the feeble state of his bodily health, it would be greatly distressing to him, if, on the day which was destined to be his last upon this earth, his bodily powers should fail, and thereby give rise to a surmise that his weakness was occasioned by fear, or a feeling of being really guilty of the great crimes charged against him. He said he was innocent of the crimes charged against him, and although he was to suffer unjustly an ignominious death for crimes never committed, yet the feeling of perfect innocence gave him that strength which would enable him to meet the King of Terrors without finching, or without any exhibition of weakness. He said he had made up his mind to die, and he did not expect any clemency. After all, being so sick and feeble and his health so much impaired, and as he knew that he could live but a short time, he cared little whether, under such circumstances, his life was prolonged. He stated that when he entered the prison yard yesterday morning and noticed the scaffold that was in process of erection, and the preparations that were being made for his execution, he was surprised that he did not feel a shudder; and he could not refrain from asking himself the question why it was so, and why he remained so calm. He answered mentally that it was in the knowledge and perfect consciousness of his innocence. He stated that he would to-day write parting letters to his family in this and in the Old Country, and this work would cause him the only pang which he would suffer in this life. It was for their sakes only that life was valuable, and it was only on their account that he regretted to suffer so ignominious a death. He did not expect his wife, and indeed he did not wish her to come, for her trouble and grief would be sufficient as it was.—[Nat. Int.]

Wirz is to be executed to-morrow
